

COURSE OPTIONS
For students majoring in International Studies
With an emphasis in European Studies

Major Requirements

12 hours from Humanities and Language Areas:

(Any of the Literature and Civilization courses from Spanish, French, German, Russian)

Religious Studies 2620:	History of Christianity, 1500-present.
Art History & Archaeology 1120:	History of Western Art II
Art History & Archaeology 3620:	Italian Renaissance Art
Art History & Archaeology 3640:	Baroque Art
Art History & Archaeology 3740:	19 th Century European Art

12 hours from Social and Behavioral Sciences:

Geography 2660:	Environmental Geography
Geography 2550:	Introduction to the Humanized Earth
Geography 2780:	World Political Geography: Patterns and Processes
History 1510:	History of Modern Europe
History 2520:	Europe in the 19 th Century
History 3540:	Contemporary Europe
History 4680:	Germany in the 20 th Century
History 4690:	Modern France: 1815 to Present
History 4710:	The Russian Revolution
Political Science 4420:	Politics of International Economic Relations
Political Science 4610:	Western European Political Systems
Political Science 4440:	International Organizations
Political Science 4400:	Theories of International Relations
Political Science 4500:	The European Union in the Global System
Marketing 4720:	Global Marketing

12 hours; Focus Area – Including Capstone Experience:

Student determines focus area for the major in consultation with an advisor. Suggestions include additional courses in Political Science, Spanish Literature, Anthropology, Geography, Sociology Religious Studies, or History. (See courses listed above for suggestions of additional courses.)