

COURSE OPTIONS
For students majoring in International Studies
With an emphasis in Latin American Studies

Major Requirements

12 hours from Humanities and Language Areas:

Spanish 2330:	Latin American civilization
Spanish 2390:	Latin American Women's Culture
Spanish 3380:	Latin American Women Writers
Spanish 3420:	Introduction to Hispanic Literature I
Spanish 3430:	Introduction to Hispanic Literature II
Religious Studies 2100:	Indigenous Religions
Honors 2117H:	The Emerging Canons: New Voices from the Americas

12 hours from Social and Behavioral Sciences:

Anthropology 3650:	Aztec, Maya and Inca Civilization
History 1840:	Colonial Latin America (1492-1825)
History 1850:	Latin American Since Independence
Geography 2660:	Environmental Geography
Geography 2550:	Introduction to the Humanized Earth
Geography 2780:	World Political Geography: Patterns and Processes
Geography 3140:	Mexico, Central America, and the Caribbean
Political Science 4410:	Politics and War
Political Science 4420:	Politics of International Economic Relations
Political Science 4600:	Latin American Politics
Political Science 4440:	International Organizations
Marketing 4720:	Global Marketing
Rural Sociology 3235:	Global Perspectives and Realities
Sociology 4230:	Global perspectives on Women and Development

12 hours; Focus Area – Including Capstone Experience:

Student determines focus area for the major in consultation with an advisor. Suggestions include additional courses in Political Science, Spanish Literature, Anthropology, Geography, Sociology, or History. (See courses listed above for suggestions of additional courses.)